

THE MERRY PROJECT

Koji Mitzutani is hell bent on making this century a merry one. His plan? The Merry Project, a free newspaper and art forum that is on its course around the world picking up snapshots and sound bites from shiny, happy people. You'll have spotted the paper in Tokyo, London and most recently New York. The next step for the merry movement? Merry Iraq, their boldest project to date. Follow the merry-go-round. ■ 21merry.net.
