

Koji Mizutani

One of Japan's most eminent graphic designers, Koji Mizutani has created Merry, an exhibition of 200 photographic images capturing the smiles of young people in the most fashionable district of Tokyo. Each optimistic image is accompanied by an interview in which the subject explains their ideas for a bright future.

SPIRIT, L&M May 1-31, store hours.